New Terms of Sale

Please note that the following Terms of Sale are different from those of our previous sales and that bidders should be aware of the following.

1. This is an online and mail-bid sale. Absentee bids will be accepted by mail, fax, email and phone until May 14, 2014. On the day of the live online sale, only bids placed via the live online platform will be accepted: no phone, fax, email or mail bids can be entered on the day of the sale.
2. All lots will be sold to the highest bidder. All bids (whether placed online or by mail, fax, email or phone) will be treated as limits and lots will be purchased below these limits where competition permits. Lots will be sold on the date of the online sale.
3. Absentee bidders should be mindful that bids submitted in irregular increments may be rounded to a lower bid to comply with the online platform's established bidding increments.
4. Unless exempt by law, the buyer will be required to pay 7.5% sales tax on the total purchase price of all lots delivered in Ohio. Purchasers may also be liable for compensating use taxes in other states, which are solely the responsibility of the purchaser. Foreign bidders may be required to pay duties, taxes or tariffs in their respective countries, which are also the responsibility of the bidders.
5. This is an "as is" appraisal sale. Any claims for adjustment by bidders must be made within three days after receipt of lots purchased. No lots may be returned without our written permission. By submitting bids you agree to the Terms of Sale.
6. Bidders unknown to us must supply acceptable credit references or a 25% deposit to assure entry of their bids. Registration of unknown bidders on the live online platform will be made approved only when the bidder provides an acceptable credit card number with registration.
7. This is a reserve auction. The minimum of value are intended solely as a guide. Starting prices for this sale are at approximately one-half of estimate (though this may vary). Kolbe & Fanning reserve the right to purchase items in this sale for customers or stock at their discretion.
8. A buyer's premium of 17.5% will be added to the cost of all lots purchased. There is no additional charge or commission for executing your bids.
9. We reserve the right to withdraw any lot prior to sale for any reason.
10. All postage, insurance, and shipping charges will be added to the buyer's invoice. There will be a $3.00 charge per lot for processing.
11. A late payment fee of 3% per month will be charged on accounts remaining unpaid 30 days after the sale.
12. All sales are conducted in U.S. dollars. Payment may be made by check, money order, credit card, PayPal or wire transfer. All checks must be in U.S. dollars, drawn on U.S. banks and have electronic encoding. Our bank account details will be provided on request for wire transfers, and any bank charges noted to be paid by the sender. Invoices may be paid by credit card or PayPal, but the bidder agrees to pay a 3% bank fee for processing.
13. Lots to be posted in challenges not in the United States or its Territories will be sent only at the risk of the purchaser. When possible, postal insurance will be obtained. Packages ordered for private insurance will be so covered at a cost of 1% of total value, to be paid by the buyer.
14. All break allowances with the catalogue must be paid for in full. Payment must be made immediately upon notification or upon receipt of merchandise. Our discretion is kept to withhold delivery of lots until full payment has been received is reserved.
15. All lots are as described. We acknowledge the possibility of errors or typographical mistakes, and any errors on our part will be cheerfully corrected. We cannot be responsible for any errors; please check your bid sheet carefully.

The Virtuoso's Companion

1140 Denton, M. THE VIRTUOSO'S COMPANION, AND COIN COLLECTOR'S GUIDE. London: M. Denton, 1795–96. The first four volumes, bound in one. 12mo, 19th-century brown half calf with marbled boards; spine with four raised bands, ruled and decorated in blind; red morocco spine label, gilt; marbled endpapers; all page edges red. calf. Finely engraved frontispiece; four engraved titles; 120 finely engraved plates, each depicting both sides of four tokens; 15, (1) page index. Slight rubbing, else a fine copy. (400.00)

An attractive copy of the first four volumes. Issued serially over several years, complete sets of this, the only comprehensive early work depicting 18th-century English tokens, are today decidedly rare. The preface proposed to issue "fac-similes of four hundred and eighty different Coins, in four Volumes twelve, with an elegant frontispiece, at the price of twenty shillings." After the four volumes here present had appeared, such a wealth of tokens remained un-illustrated that it was decided to extend the series to eight volumes. Initiated by Denton, the last two parts were published by Thomas Prattent. The work appeared at ten- to fourteen-day intervals in printed wrappers, price sixpence: twelve tokens of three plates comprising a number. Given the method of distribution, the change in publisher (many sets are comprised of only the first 180 plates), and the proclivity of early collectors to cut up plates to illustrate other books (the famous Conder work, for example), it is not surprising that few complete sets have survived.

The rare leatherbound combined special edition, the first copy we have offered since 1996. An exceptional collection of reales de ocho formed by Ray Johnson. According to the catalogue, Johnson's goal was "a complete" a date collection of all crowns from the various Spanish colonial mints (Guatemala, Lima, Nuevo Reino, Popayan, Potosi, Santiago and Mexico). He completed three of these series, and had a cumulative 95% of all confirmed issues. The series of catalogues presenting this marvelous group will doubtlessly become a significant reference volume in its own right. It is probable that no sales catalogue in numismatic history has ever included so nearly complete a collection of these Latin American colonial crowns.

Most of the present version deals with the census, providing (reproduced) photographs and descriptions, brought up-to-date in red ink by the author. Inscribed, "For John Ford—With respect, admiration, and sincere friendship (signed) Jack Collins 1/29/88."

1308 Dickeson, Montroville Wilson. THE AMERICAN NUMISMATICAL MANUAL OF THE CURRENCY OR MONEY OF THE ABORIGINES, AND COLONIAL, STATE, AND UNITED STATES COINS. WITH HISTORICAL AND DESCRIPTIVE NOTICES OF EACH COIN OR SERIES. Philadelphia, 1859. First edition. 4to, original blindstamped brown cloth; handsome impression in gilt of an 1849 double eagle on the upper cover, in blind on the rear cover. x, (11)-256 pages; handsome lithographic portrait of the author printed in two colors; frontispiece of the Libertas Americana medal; text illustrations; 19 attractive lithographic plates of coins and currency printed in colors and metallic tints. Spine faded and worn, but a sound, clean, well above-average example. (300.00)

Ex John W. Adams Library. The first work covering the entire range of American numismatics. Dickeson was by nature a popularizer and showman. He toured the country for several years in the early 1850s lecturing on North American archeology and excavating Indian mounds. His lecture was enhanced by a painting, 348 feet long and over seven feet high entitled Monumental Grandeur of the Mississippi Valley. It was meant to be rolled up on two poles, then unrolled like a film strip to reveal various historical and archeological scenes pertinent to the lecture. His Numismatic(al) Manual (the al was dropped after the first edition), while not so spectacular, was clearly intended to reach a mass market. Handsome in format and visual presentation, it was distributed by a major publisher of the day and written in an authoritative manner. Dickeson even envisaged, "if it should be approved, to prepare an edition for the use of schools." Until the appearance of Breen's magnum opus in 1988, it remained the only comprehensive work on American numismatics ever published. Ex Kolbe Sale 86, lot 479.

A 1774 Germantown, Pennsylvania Ready Reckoner

1317 Fenning, Daniel. THE READY RECKONER; OR TRADER'S MOST USEFUL ASSISTANT, IN BUYING AND SELLING ALL SORTS OF COMMODITIES EITHER WHOLESALE OR RETAIL.... London Printed; Germantown Reprinted by Christopher Sower, 1774. Seventh Edition. 12mo [4to collation], original full brown calf; boards paneled in gilt; rebacked in plain brown calf. (280) pages. Boards worn at extremities; rebacking job a bit crude; marginal worming; pages browned, with some minor staining. Last printed leaf with pencil graffiti, last blank leaf with 18th-century notes in ink. Engraved armorial ex libris of the Sherwin family. Good to very good. (400.00)

An early, colonial-era example of an American Ready Reckoner, printed by the famous Sower family of printers in Germantown, Pennsylvania. Works of this type were indispensable in the conduct of commerce in late 18th century America. The final table of the book provided conversion information (into Pennsylvania and New York currency) on a variety of circulating coins including guineas, moidores, johannes, carolines, Dutch ducat, French and Spanish pistoles, Arabian chequins, pieces of eight, French crowns and others. The earliest American reckoner we have offered (Exon 13274. Sabin 24072 (the only edition listed therein)).

tion. 8vo, self-covered and stitched. 48 pages; illustrated. Near fine. (50.00)

Greany's publications are an interesting and scarce series of fixed price lists by a pioneer California coin dealer. In this fifth edition, Greany comments on the extensive nature of his stock, noting that "During the past season I have purchased the extensive stocks of C.W. Doherty and E.L. Fischer for many years engaged in business in California, also the stock of the late lamented C.J. Stake of Dayton, Ohio. The entire coin collection of the celebrated philatelist Lieut. J.M.T. Partello has found its way into my stock, besides many other private collections of coins and stamps. My purchases in Confederate Currency alone represent over half a million dollars in face value; and the latest acquisition was the purchase of 15,000 coins."

1322 Greany, W.F. CATALOGUE OF OLD COINS, STAMPS, CURIOS, FOR SALE... San Francisco, c. 1893. Sixth edition. 8vo, self-covered and stitched. 64 pages; illustrated. Stitching partly loose; chipping; very good. (50.00)

The sixth edition of Greany's occasional price list, the latest we have encountered.

A Nearly Complete Run of the California Philatelist

1320 Gamsb, E.F. THE CALIFORNIA PHILATELIST. San Francisco, 1883-97. Ten of the twelve issues published under this title, being Nos. 23-27 and 29-33 [lacking Nos. 28 and 34]. Small 8vo, self-covered. 16 to 40 pages each; illustrated. Generally very good or better, though last issue is damaged, with final leaf detached and badly chipped. (400.00)

A very rare and little known publication with numismatic content among its philatelic coverage. The California Philatelist is a continuation of Gamsb's earlier U.S. Philatelist, first published in 1876. Moving to a part of the country virtually devoid of either philatelic or numismatic activity apparently did not deter Gamsb, who proved a pioneer in both fields. While Gamsb's publication is mostly given over to stamp coverage, interesting material on coins is sprinkled about. The first issue, dated June 1883, announces that "we were for some time enough to master a few unutilized 1883 nickels, price 15 cts. each of 7 bars 9 cents, post paid. Order now before they become obsolete." Ads include offerings of California fractional gold pieces (probably later fantasy pieces); an 1804 dollar is illustrated. Most, if not all, issues appear to have some numismatic content. Single issues are rare; a price list (as is very infrequently met with).

1323 Halpern, James L. N.C.I. GRADING GUIDE: A STEP BY-STEP APPROACH TO THE GRADING OF UNCIRCULATED AND PROOF COINS. Dallas, 1986. 8vo, original blue cloth; jacket, v. (1). 154 pages; well illustrated. New. (20.00)

Scarce, as are all Hesslein catalogues. Adams 139: "California gold. Decent Canadian. Early $1 varieties. Proof 1850, 1858 $1. Latin American counterstamps."

1325 Hodder, Michael, and Q. David Bowers. THE NORWEGIAN COLLECTION: AN AMERICAN LEGACY. Wolfe-

Wraps a little worn and dusty; top outer corner a trifle dog-eared. Near fine. (100.00)

An interesting Civil War controversy involving a $300,000 loan in coin by the named banks, authorized by the state for "the use of the army of Northern Virginia." The "orders had been issued for the restoration of this coin," when Hughes, Denver & Peck "intervened to prevent it, and... conveyed the information that certain facts could be proven, which would show that this coin was liable to seizure and confiscation. This proof has been obtained." Ex John J. Ford, Jr. library.

1327 Kolbe, George Frederick. HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE STACK FAMILY LIBRARY. New York, Jan. 9, 2010. 172 pages; 400 lots; illustrated in color. Fine. (125.00)
The deluxe hardbound edition of Sale 111, the first part of the Stack Family numismatic library. The Stack library was one of the finest numismatic libraries formed in this country—almost certainly the finest formed by a commercial firm. It was only the second numismatic library to bring over $1 million in a single-day auction.

1331 McCusker, John J. MONEY AND EXCHANGE IN EUROPE AND AMERICA, 1600–1775: A HANDBOOK. University of North Carolina Press, 1978. Oblong 8vo, original printed card covers. xi, (3), 367, (3) pages. New, still in shrink-wrap. (40.00)

1332 [Mehl, B. Max]. Kimble, Ralph A. ADVENTURES IN MONEY. PART ONE: THE TEXAS MONEY KING. Chicago: Planographed by John S. Swift, Co., 1933. 8vo, self-covered. 4 pages; portrait of Mehl. Fine. (50.00)

A rare printed radio transcript of a February 19, 1933 broadcast, written by Kimble and sponsored by Mehl, over WMAC and the National Broadcasting Company network. A blatant promotional vehicle, concluding: "Write to Max Mehl tonight, enclosing your four cents in stamps, and ask for his illustrated coin folder."

1333 [Mehl, B. Max]. ORIGINAL AND CARBON-COPY ADVERTISING CORRESPONDENCE FROM MICKEY MOUSE MAGAZINE. Two-page original, signed typewritten letter from A.D. McKinney, dated St. Louis, Dec. 2, 1935, on Mickey Mouse Magazine letterhead, addressed to B. Max Mehl regarding advertising in the publication. Carbon-copies of two related letters from Mehl and McKinney included. Near fine. (50.00)

Interesting correspondence showing that the extent of Mehl's advertising campaigns were tempered with some caution. Here, Mehl has tried to arrange a deal as a first-time advertiser in Mickey Mouse Magazine. As McKinney states in his letter, "I do not expect child readers to respond with $1.00 for a coin catalog; they will do the agitating, but the mothers or fathers will do the remitting."

A little known and rarely offered publication on a variety of topics, including numismatics. While much of its focus is on Canadian history, coverage does include the United States. While little of the content is numismatic in nature, much of it is of related relevance. Well printed, on good quality paper. A complete set appears to consist of nine issues.

1339 Schweikart, Larry. BANKING IN THE AMERICAN SOUTH: FROM THE AGE OF JACKSON TO RECONSTRUCTION. Baton Rouge: Louisiana State University Press, 1987. First edition. 8vo, original tan printed cloth; jacket. xiv, 367, (1) pages. Fine. (30.00)

ONE FATT CALFE: BEING AN ACCOUNT OF THE NEW ROCHELLE HALF-DOLLAR AND OF THE CELEBRATION MARKING THE 250TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE FOUNDING & SETTLEMENT OF THE CITY OF NEW ROCHELLE N^Y. New Rochelle: New Rochelle Commemorative Coin Committee, 1939. 8vo, original blue cloth lettered in silver.

(8), 123, (1) pages; 13 plates. Endpaper discoloration, as usually seen; else fine. (200.00)

One of only 200 copies printed in Caslon type on Linweave Rag Book paper at Pell Press. The author was the Executive Secretary of the Coin Committee and she wrote this work "in the hope that it may serve as a signpost to future Celebration Committees in planning an event such as was celebrated in 1938." It includes portraits of the main participants, including the designer Gertrude Lathrop and her "Fatt Caffé" model (preparing to plant a smooch on Gertrude's cheek). It even features a poem by the author ("Beautiful coin so silvery white"). Humorous aspects aside, this work remains the most detailed account ever written surrounding the issuance of a commemorative half dollar. Even the poem is instructive: In their work on commemoratives, Swiatek and Green wrote: "Many people believe that the figure in the late 17th century is meant for John Pell, but this is uncontroverted. Mrs. Skipton (his widow) on your remembrance bears the life of France. While on this side, once more, the fine Caffé d'Art prints. And food and drink is future delight in the day. Because him as you eat—spring germs do rise. Further on the series: 'No person in the collection when we found our profile captured as an emblem for our Celebration purposes with New Hampshire's denials for these are filled, we returned to the Mint for melting a question, of the same amount as the celebration encounter the mould finished your source material for printing this applying the process keeping on with the goldstar."

The Eric P. Newman Collection

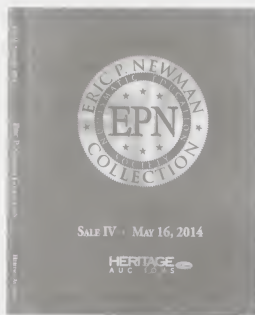

Special Hardcover Edition Subscription

A fitting tribute to an extraordinary collection and an extraordinary man.

Selections from the fabled collection of the Eric P. Newman Numismatic Education Society (EPNNE) are being offered for sale in a series of public auctions expected to be at least ten in number, to be held over the next several years by various auction firms.

The fourth sale of selections from the Eric P. Newman Numismatic Society (EPNNE) collection will feature 620 lots of important specimens of American colonial coinage from Massachusetts silver and Hibley coppers to state coppers and Nova Constellatio patterns. It promises to be among the most significant sales of colonial coins of our time.

The Eric P. Newman Numismatic Education Society will receive $100,000 from the sale, which is a significant portion of the proceeds, including the donation of the numismatic collection. Subscriptions are $125 per volume, plus $15 U.S. postage, charged when each copy is shipped. Foreign customers will be charged actual shipping cost. Individual volumes are available at limited quantities for $125 plus postage.
